REVISED:

008. ORGANIZATION CHART

Section 1. Purpose

The Joint Operating Committee believes that the purpose of school administration is to provide leadership for the educational program of the community. The administration is charged with creating a learning atmosphere conducive to the fullest development of each student enrolled in the public schools; therefore, an administrative staff shall be elected by the Board to serve to this end.

The organization chart shall indicate the line of authority as it extends from the Joint Board to the students.
