Based on his/her judgment, the Administrative Director shall coordinate investigative efforts with any of the following:

1. Solicitor.
2. Auditor.
3. Insurance agent.
4. Internal departments.
5. External agencies.
6. Law enforcement officials.

If the Administrative Director is involved in the complaint, the Superintendent of Record is authorized to initiate investigation of the complaint and coordinate the investigative efforts with individuals and agencies s/he deems appropriate.

Records shall be maintained for use in an investigation.

Individuals found to have altered or destroyed records shall be subject to disciplinary action.

If an investigation substantiates the occurrence of a fraudulent activity, the Administrative Director shall present a report to the Joint Operating Committee and appropriate personnel.

The Joint Operating Committee shall determine the final disposition of the matter, if a criminal complaint will be filed, and if the matter will be referred to the appropriate law enforcement and/or regulatory agency for independent investigation.

Confidentiality

The Administrative Director shall investigate reports of fraudulent activity in a manner that protects the confidentiality of the individuals and facts.

All employees involved in the investigation are required to maintain confidentiality regarding all information about the matter during the investigation.

Results of an investigation shall not be disclosed to or discussed with anyone other than those individuals with a legitimate right to know, until the results are made public.

Prevention

In order to prevent fraud, the Joint Operating Committee directs that a system of internal controls be followed that may include but are not limited to the following:
